Blue Marble Training

Classes are available on-site at your company, at a location near you, or in the Blue Marble Offices in Gardiner, Maine.

Introduction/Primer on Geodesy:

Both classes cover the foundations and principles of Geodesy and mapping. Whether you're an expert in GIS or just starting out this course is essential to understanding the real concepts behind mapping. We can't accent enough how important these concepts are, even our staff at Blue Marble find this course helpful.

Geographic Transformer

Learn how to use the Transformer in a daylong training that covers the entire functionality of the Transformer through using your data to familiarize and master key image management skills. This training covers such key areas of raster data management as referencing, reprojecting, tiling and mosaicking.

Geographic Calculator

This daylong session includes a detailed conversation and overview of coordinate conversion, coordinate systems and geodesy. Users are then walked through the features and functions of the software including interactive conversions, point database conversions, map file conversions, and working with custom coordinate systems. Users are encouraged to bring their own data for these sessions.

the line items included in this form and have chosen to sign the form to indicate your acceptance, you must fax BMG the signed form in its entirety in order for the form to be accepted. Your Account Manager will contact you if additional information is required to complete your request.

If your organization is a US Federal, state, or local government agency; an educational facility; or a company that will not pay an invoice without having issued a formal purchase order, a signed form will not be accepted unless it is accompanied by your purchase order.

Acceptance of this form is limited to the BMG license agreement, BMG form terms and conditions, and any other BMG terms and conditions included with this form. Any additional or different terms in any purchase order are deemed rejected unless expressly accepted in writing and signed by BMG. Notwithstanding, if the purchase order is placed under an existing signed agreement (e.g., Distribution License Agreement), or under the GSA Federal Supply Schedule, then the purchase order shall identify such an agreement on the face of the order and the terms and conditions of such agreement shall govern the subject matter of the purchase order.

By signing below, you are authorizing BMG to issue an invoice for the items included in the above form in the amount of $_____, plus sales taxes if applicable.

Any estimated sales and/or use tax reflected on this form has been calculated as of the date of this form and is merely provided as a convenience for your organization's budgetary purposes. BMG reserves the right to adjust and collect sales and/or use tax at the actual date of invoicing. If your organization is tax-exempt or pays state tax directly, the prior to invoicing, your organization must provide BMG with a copy of a current tax exemption certificate issued by your state's taxing authority for the given jurisdiction.

These prices and terms are valid only for items purchased for use and delivery within the United States.

ORDER PROCESS

The order process is initiated when BMG receives an original purchase order or some form of advance payment. Several additional documents (e.g., Distribution License Agreement, credit application, Tax Exemption certificate, etc.) may be required to complete the order process. Generally, the need for these documents varies by the type of software, data, Web-enabled services, subscriptions, and professional

BMG LICENSE AGREEMENTS

All BMG software, data, Web-enabled services, and subscriptions offered in this form are commercial off-the-shelf items developed at private expense and subject to BMG commercial license terms, unless specifically identified by BMG as a non-commercial item. Professional services agreements may also include license terms. Most BMG software, data, Web-enabled services, and subscriptions are subject to the BMG License Agreement included with the deliverable item as an online agreement or in the packaging as a shrink-wrap agreement. If you license certain software or data, a Master License Agreement signed by both parties may be required. Some BMG software is copy protected with a software key code or hardware key, and some software, data, Web-enabled services, and subscriptions require registration or a password. You will be given instructions to access the key code, register, or obtain a password through the BMG website or by other means. If you are purchasing on-site training and a temporary version of the software is installed on any of your organizations computers or servers you agree to uninstall those licenses at the conclusion of said training. You may be asked to verify this removal of the software via a signature.
